Not That You Asked Rants

Steve Almond's Rants, Exploits, and Obsessions (Not That You Asked) is a collection of essays tied together only by Almond's admitted fascination with himself. I remember having certain problems with Candyfreak, another of Almond's books, but I think they were mostly in the area of "He doesn't like lime-flavored Life Savers?"

I wasn't familiar with Steve Almond before reading this collection of essays. I am much more familiar with him now. Not that I asked. Not That You Asked is that kind of essay collection that tends to get attention these days; a personal memoir that is equally narcissistic and self-deprecating, humorous yet poignant, and involves more discussion about the author's sex life than was necessary.
