Light of the World (Greek: φῶς τοῦ κόσμου Phōs tou kósmou) is a phrase Jesus used to describe himself and his disciples in the New Testament. The phrase is recorded in the Gospels of Matthew and John. It is closely related to the parables of Salt and Light and Lamp under a bushel. John 8:12 and Matthew 5:14-16

Light of the World - Wikipedia

The Light of the World (1851–1853) is an allegorical painting by the English Pre-Raphaelite artist William Holman Hunt (1827–1910) representing the figure of Jesus preparing to knock on an overgrown and long-unopened door, illustrating Revelation 3:20: "Behold, I stand at the door and knock; if any man hear My voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he ...

The Light of the World (painting) - Wikipedia

Just as He came as the Light of the world, He commands us to be "lights," too. In Matthew 5:14–16 we see believers depicted as the light of the world. Just as the moon has no light of its own, reflecting the light of the sun, so are believers to reflect the Light of Christ so that all can see it in us.

The Lord is my light and my salvation . . . —Psalm 27:1. Under the picture of Peter Milne, hanging in the church he founded on the little New Hebrides Island of Nguna, these words are found: "When he came, there was no light. When he died, there was no darkness." When Christ came into the world, there was no light.

Billy Graham Daily Devotion: The Light of the World

"And you, beloved, are the light of the world. A city built on a hilltop cannot be hidden. Similarly, it would be silly to light a lamp and put it under a bowl. When someone lights a lamp, she puts it on a table or a desk or a chair, and the light illuminates the entire house.

How To Be The Light In The World - Spiritually Hungry

For us today, that light is Jesus, the light of the world (John 8:12). In Christ, God reminds us that he has not abandoned us and that his love is for us. We are also called to shine the light of Christ into the wilderness experiences of others. We need to do this individually and as churches.

The Light of the World - Today Daily Devotional

"I am the Light of the World; he who follows Me will not walk in darkness, but will have the Light of life". St John's Gospel records Christ's proclamation which inspired Holman Hunt to paint this world famous image. This is the third version of the allegory painted by the artist.

Light of the World - [Lyric Video] Lauren Daigle - YouTube

In The Light of the World, Elizabeth Alexander finds herself at an existential crossroads after the sudden death of her husband. Channeling her poetic sensibilities into a rich, lucid prose, Alexander tells a love story that is, itself, a story of loss.

The Light of the World by Elizabeth Alexander

Jesus is the Light. The light of Jesus conquers darkness in every way: 1) It gives us guidance and a clear path: Psalms 119:105 says, "Your word is a light to my feet and a light unto my path.". 2) Sin and danger are overcome: John 1:4-5 says, "In him was life, and the life was the light of men. The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it.
